GOVERNOR LESLIE HEARS ANTI-LYNCH DELEGATION

National Medical Assn. To Close 35th Annual Session Here Saturday

Delegates From Far And Wide In Attendance At Sessions

With hundreds of delegates from every section of the United States in attendance, the National Medical association composed of the leading physicians, surgeons, dentists and pharmacists of America, opened its thirty-fifth annual session here Monday in the auditorium of the Crispus Attucks high school.

"Hospitalization is the surest method of protecting the health of a community," said Dr. M. G. Green of Knoxville, Tenn., president of the National Medical association in his annual address before the National Hospital association an allied organizations of the National Medical association at the opening of its thirty-fifth annual session here.

"Health is a community interest, and as health units for the greatest good of the communities they serve, hospitals exist for the good of humanity, and only incidentally for the good of physicians," said Dr. Green.

The National hospital here compared the excessive expense of maintaining privately owned hospitals with that of community owned hospitals and municipal hospitals.

Eight Get High Rating Discussion centered about the standardization of colored hospitals. Reports showed that there are twelve colored hospitals out of 108 in the association, which have attained an "A" grade. These are Mercy hospital, Philadelphia; Douglas hospital, Philadelphia; Provident hospital, Baltimore; Freedman's hospital, Washington; Provident hospital, Chicago; Kansas City Gen. hospital No. 2, Kansas City, Mo.; St. Louis City Hospital No. 2, St. Louis; George W. C., and the St. Agnes hospital, Raleigh, N. C.

Prominent among the superintendents of hospitals who attended was Dr. W. A. Warfield, Washington.

Dr. L. A. West, Memphis, in his president's address Tuesday before the thirty-fifth annual session of the National Medical association, stressed importance of developing more "Class A" hospitals.

Dr. G. Wayman Reeves, Atlanta, presided over the surgical meeting, reading a paper on "The Contribution of the Negro to Medical Science." Speakers were Dr. John O. Catalan and Dr. J. F. Lane, both of Louisville; Dr. J. H. Hoover, Terre Haute; Dr. Melvin Payne, Tulsa, Okla., and Dr. Elmer E. Bowser, Tulsa.

At the Monday session, Dr. William H. Walsh, Chicago, executive secretary of the American Hospital association, read papers made under the auspices of the Rosenwald Foundation which has made plans to spend $6,000,000 in establishing colored hospitals in congested communities where accommodations for colored people are inadequate. Other speakers were Dr. J. Edward Perry, Dr. John E. Kve and Dr. F. Tucker Moore.

The evening session was a welcome meeting at Bethel A. M. E. church. Dr. J. B. Hankal, president, and Dr. Frederick Jackson, president of the Indianapolis board of health, made the address of welcome for Mayor Reginald H. Sullivan. Other speakers were Dr. R. M. Herrick, Dr. H. L. Hummons, Dr. J. H. Ward, Veterans hospital, Tuskegee; Dr. W. W. Turner, Gary; Dr. L. A. Cabal, F. B. Ransom, Dr. S. D. Meriwether and Mrs. W. E. Brown. Dr. E. D. Moten, chairman central executive committee in charge of the convention gave announcements.

A public health meeting was held Tuesday evening at Mt. Paran Baptist church, addresses by prominent physicians featuring the Rev. C. H. Bell is pastor of the Mt. Paran church.

Installation Of Officers Thursday morning the regular sessions were held at Crispus Attucks high school. Thursday afternoon delegates to the electoral college were elected. PEOPLE URGED TO TAKE STEP IN SELF DEFENSE

Sacco-Vanzetti Day To See Demonstration Against Lynching Evil

NEW YORK, August 22.—(ANP)—Calling upon the Negro masses of the United States to demonstrate in solidarity with the white workers on August 22 against lynching, race discrimination and all persecutions upon the toiling masses, the National office of the International Labor Defense issued a statement to that effect. The International Labor Defense has set aside that day for memorial demonstrations on the anniversary of the legal murder of Sacco and Vanzetti. These two working class fighters were legally murdered by the employing class and its agents in the State of Massachusetts on August 22, 1927, because of their activities in behalf of labor.

Struggle Against Lynching One of the central issues in the demonstration on August 22, will be the increased struggle against lynching. The onward rush of the lynching terror is seen most recently in the barbarous lynching of William Shipp and Abraham Smith, two 19-year-old Negro workers, by a mob of over 4,000 on August 7, in Marion, Ind.

Over 20 Murdered The rapid increase of lynching of Negro workers in the United States (since January, 1930, over 20 Negro workers have met death at the hands of fiendish lynch mobs), the outright murder of Negro workers (Alfred Levy, beaten to death by the police in New York), the flaring up of race riots, the widespread race discrimination, segregation, etc., and the general brutal persecutions of Negro workers, must arouse the Negro masses to tremendous demonstrations of protest and struggle against their oppressors.

Georgia Man Escapes Long Prison Term

Shate Wright Convicted Of Assaulting White Woman Is Released

MACON, Ga., August 22.—(CNS)—Arrested for and convicted of assaulting a white woman, Shate Wright, a Negro living near Mount Vernon, was sentenced to 20 years in the penitentiary. He was not lynched and lives to be a free man today.

He was released Monday, Aug. 11th from the Bibb county jail and the charges dismissed.

The release was ordered by Judge Eschol Graham, of Macon, who sometime ago granted the man a new trial because he thought the evidence was insufficient to convict him.

After the granting of a new trial, Solicitor-General M. H. Boyer, of Hawkinsville, asked that the case be placed on the "dead dock" and the prisoner released. The order of release was signed Saturday and reached here Monday.

Mr. Boyer said he was unable to produce evidence which would strengthen the case.

Wright was brought to Macon for safe-keeping February 6, immediately following alleged commission of the offense.

DR. S. A. FURNISS IS NAMED G. O. P. BUREAU HEAD

Newly Appointed Standard Bearer To Announce Personnel In 15 Days

Dr. Sumner A. Furniss, prominent Indianapolis physician was named head of the colored bureau of the Republican State committee by Eliza O. Rogers, state chairman Monday.

Morris R. Taylor, well-known dealer in real estate with offices at 401 North Senate avenue, was appointed executive secretary of the bureau.

Dr. Furniss, who for many years has been active in Republican circles served as councilman-at-large from 1918 to 1922 and as alternate delegate at large to two large Republican National conventions. His brother, Dr. Henry W. Furniss served with credit as United States minister to the Republic of Haiti in the Roosevelt and Taft administrations.

Recognized Leader The new G. O. P. State Committee Bureau head is a recognized leader in political circles throughout the state of Indiana.

Mr. Taylor, who is a graduate of De Pauw university served over seas in the 89th pioneer infantry. For nine years he was physical director of the Y. M. C. A., before going into the real estate business.

As head of the colored bureau of the Republican state committee, Dr. Furniss plans to perfect a militant organization to co-operate with the existing county organizations, where there are large numbers of colored voters with the hope of securing greater support for the Republican party.

Figures show that in the recent elections in many of the larger centers hardly fifty per cent of the colored voters have participated.

It is hoped by calling attention to the splendid ticket of the support of an increased number of G. O. P. votes will be secured.

Dr. Furniss states that the personnel of the bureau will be announced within the next fifteen days.

NEGRO BUSINESS LEAGUE MEET BLAZES FORTH

Detroit Welcomes Hundreds Of Delegates To Annual Conabulation

DETROIT, August 22.—(ANP)—"After the College, What?" In other words, after Negro men and women graduate from the various colleges and universities what are they going to do? That is the important question which must be solved by the business men and women gathered here in attendance upon the thirty-first annual meeting of the National Negro Business League.

To discuss this question and attempt a solution, leading business men from all sections of the country have gathered and little time has been wasted in "speech-making and inspirational talks." What has been accomplished by members of the group has given way in importance to the question what will be accomplished and how best to reach the goal.

The session in a measure, got under way, Tuesday evening, when the local league entertained Dr. Robert R. Moton, and other executive officers at a banquet. Even this affair was taken up largely by between mouthfuls, with discussions on the ways and means of accelerating the commercial advancement of the group and of making places for the young men and women who spend years and years in training for commercial pursuits.

The opening session, that is the public session, was given over to being welcomed to the city and accepting the "keys to the city," which were tendered by Detroiters, who yet think that Detroit, which is ten minutes and ten cents from Canada is yet the finest and greatest convention city in the United States. With the formal welcoming over the body immediately began discussing "Opportunities and followed by those who have attempted to find and others who have either found or made opportunities.

The program, as the sessions progress, will apparently eclipse annual report. Dr. Moton, in his manifested in Secretary Holsey's annual report.

Features of the week's sojourn here include a visit to the Ford plant and other large enterprises.

Outstanding features of the program include the grand musicale, which was held Friday evening, when George Garner, internationally known tenor, conducted a choir composed of 1,000 voices in a program ranging from plaintive melodies to grand opera, the street musicale or parade and athletic carnival, scheduled for Friday, and the Jubilee Pageant of Progress on Tuesday evening.

Among the outstanding speakers who will address the convention are Dr. Mordecai Johnson, president of Howard university, Washington, D. C.; Dr. Carter G. Woodson of the Association for the Study of Negro Life and History, Washington, D. C.; Dr. J. M. Ganey, president of the Virginia Normal and Industrial institute, Petersburg, Fla.; A. L. Holsey, secretary of National Negro Business league and Tuskegee institute; Attorney W. H. Harrison, Chicago; Dr. J. R. E. Lee, president of the Florida A. and M. college, and R. H. Rutherford, president of the Liberty Life Insurance company, Washington, D. C.

Ousted Baptist Pastor Defiant

NEW ORLEANS, La., August 22.—(ANP)—Failure of the board of trustees of the First Evangelical Baptist church, Negro in Willow street, to legally dismiss the Rev. O. B. Quinn as pastor of the church, has resulted in the dismissal of the injunction proceedings brought before Judge Hugh C. Cane, in the civil district court to restrain the defendant from continuing to exercise the functions of the pastor. At a meeting of the congregation, the Rev. Mr. Quinn is alleged to have been found guilty of improper conduct and was ousted.

CHICAGO GIVES BAPTISTS A BIG WELCOME

Windy City Olivet Church Is National Convention Headquarters

CHICAGO, August 22.—(ANP)—Chicago and Chicagoans hung out the proverbial "Welcome Sign" to the delegates in attendance upon the Golden Jubilee celebration of the National Baptist Convention of America, and they really had to welcome a host of representatives of the denomination.

They are here! Here from all sections of the country. In fact the roll call at the preliminary session held at the Olivet Baptist church, Thursday morning showed that every state in the Union was represented. The visitors, ministers, and laymen began pouring into the city as early as Monday morning, and there has been a steady stream ever since.

While the convention was called to order Thursday morning by Dr. L. K. Williams, president of the organization, the real opening session was held Friday morning when the convention moved into permanent quarters at the Coliseum, Chicago's most historic convention hall.

Here everything was in readiness. Amplifiers enable the thousands of delegates who packed the hall, to hear every word, so that when the representatives return home they can make a full report of what happened and if reports are true, plenty will happen before the celebration is over.

Harmony Prevails If there is any dissension, as pre-convention reports from various individuals indicated, there was no semblance of it at the opening session. The air was charged with the jubilee spirit and when Bishop Walls referred to Dr. L. K. Williams, president; Dr. R. B. Hudson, secretary; Dr. W. H. Jernagin, president of the B. Y. P. U., and other administrative officers, the spacious hall resounded with cheers and applause.

Business and professional men, state and city officials, representatives of other denominations of both races, joined in welcoming the body to Chicago at the opening session, after which the convention was duly organized and each department went to its own quarters to transact the business at hand.

The program of the ten days is one of the most ambitious, according to officers of the body, ever undertaken by the organization. Every phase of life and methods of advancement of these various phases will be discussed at the public meetings and a constructive program will be formulated to accelerate the general progress, not only of Baptists but the race as a whole.

HAITIANS QUIT OVER HOOVER'S NEW APPOINTEE

Cabinet Resigns In Protest Against New School Director Incumbency

PORT AU PRINCE, Haiti, Aug. 22.—(ANP)—Led by Damocles Vieux, minister of education and agriculture for Haiti, the entire cabinet resolved to resign Wednesday when it became apparent that that was the only step for it to take in protest against the nomination of Carl Colvin as director of the Service Technique de l'Agriculture, succeeding Dr. Geo. Freeman.

The outbreaks in Haiti last winter were due to the dissatisfaction of students in the school system administered by Dr. Freeman. The strike of these students resulted in the destruction of property, the killing of peasants by the marines, the appointment of the Forbes and Moten commissions, and the removal of Dr. Freeman as director.

Mr. Colvin, an Illinoisian, was the assistant of Dr. Freeman. The Haitians who are entirely independent of American influence contend that Colvin was the active administrator of the Freeman policies and that to make him director of the schools would be to insure the continuance of the Freeman program. They therefore seek an entirely new man.

According to treaty agreements, the director of the schools is named by the President of the United States, but he must be appointed by the Haitian president. Colvin was named by President Hoover late in June. Immediate objection was made to him by the Haitian press and the present Haitian administration. So far, Mr. Hoover has refrained to withdraw the name of Colvin. Eugene Roy, president of Haiti, has not wished to make the appointment against the wishes of his cabinet.

The resignation of the cabinet means that Mr. Hoover will either have to withdraw Colvin's name, or that Roy will be forced to resign if unable to obtain a new cabinet, or that the United States will have to employ its strength in obtaining another man to administer Haitian affairs and another group to support its program in Haiti. That will be extremely difficult.

On arrival at Paris the party will be divided into three groups: Group A to visit the Oisne-Aisne cemetery, located near the village of Seringesset-Nesles, 68 miles from Paris; Group A-M to visit the Aisne-Marne cemetery, located just outside the village of Belleau, 60 miles from Paris, and Group BKWD to go to the Brookwood American cemetery, within the cemetery of the London Necropolis company, at Brookwood county of Surrey, England, 28 miles from London.

Colonel Benjamin O. Davis, the highest ranking Negro officer in the United States army, a professor at Wilberforce university, is the official escort of the mothers, on this trip as on the first.

Included in this party are 18 mothers, the oldest 69 years old, coming from Fulton county, Ga., and the youngest, 45 years of age, from Talladega county, Alabama. Twenty-one widows, the two youngest being each 29 years of age; one from Hancock county, Mississippi an done from Oconee county, South Carolina, together with three step-mothers and one legal parent, make up the group.

Judge Advises Elks Factions To Get-To-Gather

Elks Urged To Take Step For The Good Of The Order

WASHINGTON, August 22.—(CNS)—The grand lodge of Elks, incorporated here and in the State of New Jersey, which sought a permanent injunction restraining operation of a similar organization in Virginia with James T. Carter, of Richmond, as its grand legal advisor, heard Saturday the decree of Judge D. Lawrence Groner, of Norfolk, at Richmond, which refused to make permanent the restraining order against the Virginia organization granted last January by Judge Northcutt, of West Virginia. An appeal was noted, and a supersedeas granted, the bond fixed at $2,000 and promptly given.

The effect of the supersedeas will prevent the organization chartered as a grand lodge in Virginia from operating until the Circuit court of Appeals has heard the case and rendered its decision some time next year.

Carter served as grand treasurer of the Elks for 15 years, until defeated at Chicago in 1928.

Justice Groner urged the litigants to get together for the general good of the organization.

BINGA STATE BANK STATUS

CHICAGO, August 22.—Plans for the reorganization of the Binga bank have been outlined but will not be put into operation until the State auditor's report is made. The committee holding the plans in abeyance are C. N. Langston, Dr. A. W. Williams, Dr. U. G. Dailey, Colonel John R. Marshall and T. B. Webb.

Former President Jesse Binga, has turned over to Charles S. Jackson, as trustee, securities and equities representing a valuation of about $325,000 to be used in an effort to realize on them and take up the "frozen assets" belonging to Mr. Binga.

The amount necessary to have the bank reopened is placed at $430,000 in cash by the bank examiners.

Loses Month's Pay As Fine

WHITE PATROLMAN BAWLED OUT FOR SHOOTING YOUTH

Fred G. Hess, white, patrolman, who shot Albert Kilcrease, a youth, while attempting to overtake him in a chase, was fined one month's pay by the board of public safety, Tuesday. The patrolman had been suspended from the force for violating the regulations which specify that a policeman must not use a revolver in arresting persons for misdemeanors.

Hess wounded the Kilcrease boy who had engaged in an altercation with a street car conductor over payment of a fare.

SEEKS PENSION FOR SERVING CONFEDERATES

DIERSBURG, Tenn., Aug. 22.—(ANP)—Unable "to make his own way," Bob Willingham, 101-year-old confederate soldier, Tuesday, filed an application through the Red Cross for a pension.

Willingham was born in 1829 and has lived for a number of years in this city. During the Civil war, he served in the Confederate army under General Polk and was engaged in fighting on Island Number 10, in the Mississippi river, across the channel from Fort Pillow. Until recently the aged man, who is the father of fourteen children, has been able to take care of himself without the aid of a pension, but now that old age has sapped his strength, he is seeking aid. Officials of the Red Cross expressed the belief that his request would be granted.

THE MEDICAL CONVENTION

Indianapolis in true hospitable fashion threw her doors wide to the hundreds of visiting physicians that honored the Hoosier capital with their presence this week.

Long and rightly regarded as a logical convention city, Miss Indianapolis, with her appreciative spirit, is doing her best to keep the delegates to the National Medical association fully entertained.

While this is true and very refreshing, so, it should not be forgotten that a surprisingly large number of these professional men and women are from the farthest corners of the nation. Therefore, it is right that they should be made to feel completely at home.

Throughout the nation, the National Medical association is making its usefulness felt in no uncertain terms. It is equally true that the organization is using its powerful influence unselfishly to promote better health and consequent longer life among the people.

A fact which lends much substantial weight to the significance of the association and the laudable purposes for which it was organized.

Among the many subjects discussed by the medicals was the all important standardization of colored hospitals. There is no escaping the fact that the latter is one of the most vital problems with which our group is now contending and the medical men are to be congratulated for bringing it to the fore at the convention.

As was to have been expected, the numerous papers read and talks made by the physicians on such as the origin and peculiarities of diseases peculiar to mankind, were as scientifically interesting as were the several methods suggested for effectively coping with the maladies.

The National Medical Association convention, charged as it is with a mission of scientific progress for the good of society, entitled to the high recognition and full confidence it is mustering throughout the land.

Composed as it is of the leading physicians, surgeons, dentists and pharmacists of America, the annual confabulations of the organization are bound to be productive of much helpful understanding and needed progress.

The Indianapolis Recorder joins the entire citizenry of the Hoosier capital in cordially welcoming the National Medical association to Indianapolis.

PUNISH THE LYNCHERS

Citizens of the State of Indiana are demanding that the cowardly murders of Smith and Shipp at Marion be brought to justice immediately.

The lynchers of these two young men, deliberate outlaws that they are, should be made to suffer the legal consequences of taking the law into their own hands and trampling under their feet the sacred dignity of the commonwealth.

It is being openly asserted that officials are doing next to nothing in the matter of apprehending and punishing the participants in a deed that rocked the very foundation of the people's security.

According to press dispatches, Circuit Judge O. D. Clawson at Marion has refused to approve eighteen affidavits and issue warrants for the mob leaders. This naturally has had the effect of throwing a monkey wrench into the machinery of justice and bringing about a state of things that is as chaotic as it is disgracefully regrettable.

Can it be true that the judge in question is legally correct in his alleged refusal to facilitate other officers in bringing the rascals to the bar of justice? We refuse to believe it.

To block the arrest of criminals as deadly as those which robbed these boys of their Constitutional rights without due process of law, is hardly to be expected of servants of the people whose life and property they were sworn to protect.

We do not know upon what legal technicality the circuit judge at Marion bases his unexpected stand, but we do know that a specific law of the state was boldly and tyrannically transgressed and that the perpetrators should be made to pay the penalty at all cost.

Failure on the part of officials to uphold the majesty of the law of the land can only make for unleashed mob rule, relative reprisals and worse. Law abiding citizens of Indiana should bear in mind that such a state of things is not entirely impossible. To allow the Marion lynchers to go unpunished would be to openly give encouragement to a repetition of the dastardly crime and expose the people and State of Indiana to a reign of terror and its dreadful consequences.

In conclusion it suffices to say that lynchers are dangerous outlaws. They are undesirable creatures. No community in which they are allowed to operate is fit for law abiding people to live in.

If Indiana is to remain in the category of a safe and sane state, if its good name is to be vindicated from the shame so wantonly thrust upon it by the recent barbarous murder committed at Marion, Indiana must see to it that the lynchers are smoked out of their holes and punished to the full extent of the law.

Our Contemporaries Say

HEAT AND HELL

The call to prayer for rain by our white brethren of the cloth during the hot days when the drought treated all alike regardless of race, color or previous conditions of servitude reminds us of the colored brother who never thinks about God until a pain strikes him, and then in a "rush articulation," lets the words "Lord have mercy," fall out all over each other.

Trouble is the one thing which makes a good number of our friends know that all people have something equal, even if those who call themselves disciples of Christ are not willing to practice the equal creation of man, not white nor black man, but man, in the image of God as recorded in Genesis and preached by them.

Our brethren would have all of us pray for rain, but when water and everything else is plentiful even the pews of the places which they call God's house, are denied the christian and sinner with a black face, and there is seldom a petition of the Heavenly throne or an appeal to the lynchers many of whom sit under their voices against burning human beings at stake, shooting men like rabbits and driving innocent families from homes and all they have as a means of living.

When we think of Texas, Oklahoma, Alabama, and most recently Indiana, and the general attitude of the people in authority in America toward right and justice, their greed for money and power, the disregard for the liberty, peace and happiness of the less fortunate, the actual hate of so many for fellow men and women of color, we may expect heat.

Not only may we expect heat, but we may expect more heat and plenty of hell right here on earth in these United States.

—THE LOUISVILLE LEADER.

GOING TO COLLEGE

In a few weeks vacation will be over. Thousands of young men and women will be going back to college. Many of them are working their way through college. Indeed most of the young Negro men and women now in college are working their way wholly or in part. Thus habits of thrift, self confidence, responsibility and independence are being developed along with learning.

One of the most hopeful omens for the race is the ever increasing number of our young people who go to college. And it is hoped that the year 1930 may bring a much larger enrollment than ever before.

There is no need now to argue for a college education. The college has won its case. In spite of all its defects, the college is the best place we know to get an education. In spite of the occasional specimen of a fool which comes from the colleges, the great mass of men and women that our colleges turn out are upstanding, ambitious and usually make useful and successful citizens.

Every pulpit should encourage education. Every pastor should urge some bright young people in his congregation and community to attend high school and college. The Negro race needs more college men and women. We cannot ever hope to take our rightful place unless we increase the number of the college bred.

—THE CHRISTIAN RECORDER.

BANK FAILURES

The failure of the Binga bank in Chicago proves nothing about the ability of Negroes to manage financial institutions. Hundreds upon hundreds of banks managed by white men have closed up for the same reason which forced the closing of the Binga bank. The failure was not because it was a "colored" bank. Negroes and whites alike have measles and whooping cough; and banks, Negro and white alike, get caught with slow-moving paper. The country awaits Chicago's recovery in the characteristic Chicago manner.

—THE KANSAS CITY CALL.

SOUTH CAROLINA'S LOSS

Under a reapportionment of congressmen, effective in 1933, South Carolina will lose one member of the House of Representatives on the basis of the recent census figures.

This loss will not be felt by the Negroes of South Carolina who constitute half of the state's population because they have no representation in Congress, not being able to exercise the right of franchise. If South Carolina were to lose all of her congressmen, it would not at all hurt black folks there. On the contrary, such a loss would be a help to them because of the loss of legislative power by the forces opposed to their progress.

It is now up to Negroes who can vote in other sections of the country to make their votes count by registering and going to the polls on election day. There is little point in regretting the disfranchisement of Negroes in South Carolina, and other southern states when Negroes in the north, west and east are neglecting to avail themselves of the right of franchise. If Negroes in the north would vote as effectively as they talk, a lot more consideration could be obtained for the entire group.

CRUISING AROUND

By LEE JAY MARTIN

The doctors and tennis players have been with us this week. Hope their stay has been an enjoyable one, as well as profitable one.

The reception last Monday evening was a real one, with big Bethel A. M. E. church filled to overflowing, which goes to prove that Indianapolis really appreciates their visit to the city.

A prosperous looking bunch, fine cars, front drives, free wheelers and such, fine and correct clothes. As I lapped the groups and gatherings of these two associations, one of health, one of play, I could not decide whether I wished I had been a doctor of a tennis player.

The local committee of doctors did well in choosing the Park View hotel as their headquarters. Such a business needs our encouragement and support. The "Y" was the logical place for the tennis players.—S. M. B.

Such conventions and gatherings are necessary and helpful to a greater degree than most of us think. We would be far, far apart were it not for these various assemblies.

Looked in on the National Baptist exposition now in session in that gigantic coliseum in mighty Chicago. Booth operators endeavored to interest you in their wares, herb tonics, hair preparations, song books, schools, etc. Tuskegee had a wonderful display. Seemed more like a state fair on Monday, than a church convention on Sunday.

The huge crowd milled around in the convention hall. You could plainly hear the page calling thru the multiple amplifying system, Reverends from everywhere, Alabama, Texas, California, Florida, Jamaica, Africa. Appeared as though some of the Reverends were having themselves paged.

Indiana avenue from 35th down to 15th, was thick with the mighty chattering throng. The streets were beautifully decorated for several blocks about the coliseum, giving that section of the city an atmosphere of festivity. Outside of this area and 47th street, Chicago was just Chicago, taking very little notice of the convention.

Am indebted to Mr. John Conway, postoffice clerk and prominent churchman of Chicago, for

The Negro Faces The Fall Campaign

By KELLY MILLER

The off-year campaign is now on. The Ins are striving desperately to stay in, while the Outs are equally determined to get in. The party is power always arrogates to itself a monopoly of political virtues, while its adversary imputes to its more lucky rival all of the vices which give rise to existing ills. There are no deeply decisive issues between the Democratic and Republican parties. The only essential difference consists in the relative administrative efficiency of the rival political organizations. In this contention, the Republican party easily outdistances its adversary. On this score, those who favor good government and efficient administration, must perform fall in with the Grand Old Party which, in the main, has skillfully guided the ship of state during the past seventy years. President Hoover is undoubtedly the most skillful captain to guide this ship amidst the troubled waters of this perilous times.

Under normal conditions ours is a bi-partisan type of government. But in times of danger and distress, it becomes co-partisan. This was true in the Civil war under Lincoln, and in the World war under Wilson. The desired outcome of the titanic industrial and economic issues with which our nation and indeed the whole world is now grappling is fraught with a serious consequences to our national destiny as either our fraternal or foreign war. In this emergency, patriotism demands the laying aside of narrow partisanship. The whole nation should fall in behind President Hoover in his statesmanlike program of economic and industrial reconstruction at least for the remainder of his tenure of office. The right solution of farm relief, tariff adjustments, unemployment, prohibition, the alignment of labor and capital, the slump in the stock market, and the devastation of the drought demands this partisan sacrifice. During the storm and stress of the World war, Dr. DuBois, the Negro apostle of agitation and protest, urged his race to close ranks, forget grievances, and fall in solid phalanx behind Woodrow Wilson, the captain of the hosts.

If I could speak as an American to Americans in the present crisis, such would be my advice. But limited as I am to a circumscribed group, I must perforce analyze the peculiar political situation in their behalf. The Negro is not in any sense an issue in the approaching campaign. There is, however, significant indication of remoter bearing upon the presidential campaign of 1932. The Republican party is as much committed to the lily white policy in the south showing me around the Windy city, and it lived up to its title as we walked along lower Michigan boulevard. I am also indebted to Mrs. John Conway for that wholesome and delicious dinner she served us.

State street, the busiest street in the loop, is the dead end one, outside the loop. Douglas National bank, Arcade building, National Pythian temple, Lewis barber shop, Chicago Whip, Overton Hygienic company, and a few other enterprises, keep alive what life is left in that once famous vicinity.

Here was the beginning of a real commercial center, but the people ran away to 47th street and South Parkway, gave and are still giving their money to others. However, this did not cause the failure of the Binga State bank as the bank at Forty-seventh and Parkway also failed.

Now a pitiful sight with rustic buildings, tumbled down shacks, empty store rooms, automobiles parked on the sidewalk, are in no one's way because there is no one on the street. Street cars seem out of place, and seldom stop between 47th and 37th streets. Nobody there to get on, nobody wants to get off. State street may come back, but not as of old.

Mrs. Williams, elevator operator in the National Pythian temple building, told me that the building housing fifty-four organizations and fifty-one business concerns, was a very busy place during the week days.

Most all stores and business places employ clerks of our group. Walgreen's drug store in the Regal theatre building, bigger and finer than any drug store in Indianapolis, in which I was greatly pleased to see not a single white face in front, proving that Walgreen appreciates our trade.

IT NOW APPEARS THAT THERE WILL BE NOTHING DOING IN THE MARION LYNCHING CASE UNTIL SEPTEMBER.—THEY DIDN'T SAY WHAT YEAR.

Roland Hayes, forsakes his country, his life long comrades, to become a citizen of France, because the hotels of his country will not accommodate him. As a Frenchman, they might. Then too, here may be other untold reasons why Mr. Hayes would rather be a Frenchman.

Bed Time Stories

THE ROBINS COME TO THE RESCUE

"I am going to tell you," said daddy, "about the mother hummingbird whose little ones were about to be attacked by a snake when they were rescued by some brave robins.

"The snake had come over from the vacant field and had crawled up the honey suckle vine as the mother hummingbird had gone off for some food. Some robins hovering near had seen the snake. They had cried out in terror and had flown over the nest.

"The mother hummingbird heard the cries and hurried back, but the robins had frightened off the snake. The snake was not a very large one, and really he had been frightened off by all the noise the robins had made, and when he saw so many birds flying toward him he got away very quickly.

"The mother hummingbird got back just as the snake was leaving the nest.

"She couldn't thank the robins enough for flying to the rescue and saving her beloved little ones, but the robins didn't want any thanks. They were thankful, too, that the dear little birds had been saved, for they are very loyal to one another and will risk any danger to save each other."

JUST ME

By CALLIE SCRIVNER
The people always rant and rave,
With me they can't agree,
That's why I act the way I do,
It's just because it's me.

They say, "Why don't you make a chance?"
It seems that they could see
That tho' I tried my very best
I'd still remain—just me.

My answer is in one large word
Im-pos-si-bil-ity;
It would be in vain; why waste the time?
Results would be—just me.

I do all in my power
To keep peace and harmony,
But I guess it's in my make-up
To be wrong, because it's me.

And really, I'd be different,
If I only could, but gee!
O, well; it's useless to explain,
You see—well—it's just me.

LYNCHING

To the Editor,

The Indianapolis Recorder.

Comments on lynching and wholesale burning alive of the American Negro has spread from the south, gradually until it will cover the entire States unless Negroes awake and realize too, if they must live and enjoy the blessings with their families which they have fought for and always willing to die for in every war. They themselves must die that they may live. Somebody must do that, and when that happens this country's heathens will know the Negro is not a coward as they think and have plenty of backbone. The burning question is, is the American Negro the best that can be offered up as a sacrifice? I say no. Then let others pay the price as Negroes in defense of Negroes. Then I will assure you there will come an end to lynching and segregation.

Billions of this country's money are spent to keep folks from drinking moonshine, but not one dollar goes to protect the lives and property of Negroes after fighting and dying and winning victory that others might live. Why not resolve to live and make conditions safe so you can live and enjoy the blessings you fought and died for, yet others enjoy? How long will my race sleep. This lynching and burning evil is only an act to suppress the Negro's rising ambition and to cow him down because every lynching body is left as they say, as a warning to other Negroes. Can you not see now to doubtful Negroes that are ready to believe any disgraceful story about Negroes attacking a white woman is only a screen to cover their own dirt. Negro men aren't so foolish about white women as the press broad casts. Not near so much as they are about ours and do we lynch them? No, but why shouldn't we? There is evidence in our race to prove how they think of ours. Why not protect our own as they? I am hoping to be speaking to the very soul of every black man. You have fought everybody's battle but your own, and now you must fight your own. You owe no man an apology for self defense. Now with reference to the lynching in Marion last week, it only tells us to wake up, prepare yourself for protection in this, our capital city and every other city. Now don't you realize it were only to attack that girl, those boys wouldn't have killed the man. It's something yet deeper. The boys were attacked by that young white man and he met the Negro and not an Uncle Tom. He got what he was not expecting. To cover it up, the girl was brought up to cover his deeds because the press broadcasts that Negroes are crazy about white women. Some of us are foolish enough to believe that propaganda. Now as for the press, that mob was forming and not a word was said by a member of our race. No outcries were made until the mob lynched those two Negro boys without a chance to state their side of the affair. Just as Negroes began to prepare to protect themselves, the press says our doctors and ministers called the sheriff and notified himing to attack whites for revenge. If the press were OK, then Marion and other cities need Negroes that have more back bone who will stand by his own and stop apologizing to the white man's press when we are demanding the same for ourselves as they want. So I am saying not only to Marion but Negroes make up your mind. Let's unite our forces for self preservation at any cost and take care of the traitor when he attempts to destroy your plans. The sheriff did not fire a gun when he is privileged to protect life. No, it was his plans. He did as he intended, only to wait for troops from Camp Knox when Ft. Harrison had plenty of men.

Of course no one desires nothing but peace, if they can get it peacefully. We will see how quick the mob will be identified. Don't you know they are known? Negroes of Marion and others, stand your ground at any cost and you will respect your rights.

The voice of the awakened Negro, coming to you through The Indianapolis Recorder, signing off.
Respectfully,
E. H. GRUNDY.

ALL APPLESAUCE

To the Editor,

The Indianapolis Recorder.
In the editorial of your issue of August 6 and also in the editorials of several other papers of neighboring cities, all of which concerned the Marion lynching, abundant reference is made about the fair name of the State of Indiana and in the language of the street. I'm here to tell you that it is a lot of banana oil, applesauce, hokum or what have you?

Has it ever occurred to you that in hating you because papa hates you and in expressing his contemptible views of you because he has heard mama do so, the white child of today is true to only faith he knows, its immature brain has placed its parents upon the highest pedestal; its childish ambition is to be what papa is, talk like mama talks and act like mama acts. He is constantly reminded that it is his supreme privilege to harass, insult, humiliate and (when in groups to inflict physical injuries to any person of color.

And, further, that the children of yesterday are the grown up inhabitants of today from the highest public officials down to the lowly sheriff and others, members of this Marion mob. So, in view of the fact that no chain can be termed stronger than its weakest link, neither can the name of any state be termed fairer than the morals of its public officials and eighty per cent of its inhabitants.

Can you so easily forget that there are communities within the boundaries of our fair state where Negroes are not fair permitted to reside? Can you forget that several hundred children of foreign born parents refused to attend the same school with Negro pupils in Gary and that the act was sanctioned by parents and school officials? Can you forget the ruling of our one time Mayor Duval? Can you forget the cause of the controversies and dissensions at the City hospital. Butler university and numerous other public institutions throughout the state? If you can, then it is to laugh for it is patetically humorous.

Very truly yours,

JOHN NATHANIEL WILLIAMS.

To the Editor,

The Indianapolis Recorder.

The people of Indiana try to make believe they are astounded to witness the double lynching that took place in Marion. I can not see why any one should be surprised at anything that might befall one this present day and time any place in America.

At one time, mob violence could be confined to the south, but today it seems to be the character, the psychological trend of the American mind.

Mob violence is an outgrowth of a corrupt social order, where any and everything may be ignored as long as there is enough money at stake.

Whenever men get to the place they will allow wrong to go on in any part of a country, society is in a dangerous condition for no social evil can long be confined to any part of a country.

It must be admitted the lynching was an unfortunate thing. Whether men be white or colored, they should not be lynched.

There are many white and black that would like to have seen a race riot follow, but such would have only caused more disgrace on the state.

It is only too bad that such has to happen to open the eyes of the people. Now both white and black know when the law is not enforced regardless of color there is bread a disrespect for government. Such expression of violence is likely to be witnessed at any time.

I truly hope that the eyes of the nation while turned on Marion, will not fail to see other crimes that are equally as deplorable that are sapping the very life out of our country.

May every citizen do all that is in his or her power to bring about a social order where, child labor,

To the Editor,

The Indianapolis Recorder.
Cheer up and be thankful that we as members of the black race are being convinced more and more that we are God's chosen people.

What did they do to our Saviour, Jesus Christ? They lied about Him, beat and nailed Him to the cross. What more could be expected by us? He cautioned us, it will be remembered, to watch and pray always. We must remember that the innocent which suffers and the guilty one who goes free, always.

The whole colored race should pray more.
This fact is becoming more and more apparent. For He said "The prayers of the righteous prevaileth much." He rules both heaven and earth, death and hell. He holds every man's destiny in the hollow of His hands. So, if you can trust Him for one thing, trust Him for all. For He said, "Revenge is Mine." And if we all live clean lives we would increase the power of the nation. So cheer up and be happy.

Y. W. C. A. NOTES

300 Persons Attend Roof Garden Opening

An event of extreme gaiety and one to be remembered by those who attended for many a day, was the recent opening of the Y. W. C. A. Roof garden last Thursday evening. Over 300 persons attended the affair which was sponsored by the Roof Garden circle of which Mrs. Margaret Rape is president.

The roof garden was appropriately furnished with hickory chairs and tables. Brightly colored cushions lent an air of comfort to the chairs. The soft lights were given by floor lamps placed around the entire garden. Lovely cut flowers were donated by the following flower shops: Atkins, Bettermans, Weigands, Greens and Nelsons. Grass rugs which lent further air of the out-of-doors were donated for the event by Herbert Willis and Henry Abel. Refreshments which were donated by the entire club, were served under a brightly covered arch. Music throughout the evening was furnished by the Wood's orchestra. Miss Emily Garrett also gave several delightful selections, while Anna Woolfolk with extreme grace gave an interpretive dance. There was also a reading by Mrs. Drucilla Willis.

Hints To Hostess

B. BARCLAY BROWNIES

- 3-4 cup special cake flour, sifted.
- 1-2 teaspoon baking powder
- 1-3 cup butter or other shortening
- 2 squares unsweetened chocolate, melted
- 1 cup sugar
- 2 eggs, well beaten
- 1 teaspoon vanilla
- 1-2 cup walnut meats, chopped

Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder, and sift again. Add butter to chocolate and blend, combine sugar and eggs, add chocolate mixture, beating thoroughly, then flour, vanilla, and nuts. Pour into two greased pans, 8x8x2 inches, and bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) 35 minutes; cut in squares before removing from pan. Makes 50 brownies.

Tell Your Troubles To FANNY LOU

My husband, I know, is going with a young girl, whom I am in a position to injure disastrously. They are aware of my knowledge of the illicit friendship that exists. I can cause her to lose her position and be turned out of church, but I think because of the girl's youth and lack of experience, that it is my husband's fault. Wouldn't I, however, be justified in exposing them?

My dear friend: Gauge your actions by the amount of good to be derived. Would the public exposure of the girl make your husband more honest and true? No, it would only bring ruin on a poor unthinking girl, and perhaps hate from the husband. It would seem that the most advisable policy would be to make a private visit to the girl, (maybe she doesn't know your husband is married) explain the situation to her kindly, and tell her the consequences of following such a course. She will be only too glad to follow your advice, rather than suffer any such disgrace as you will have pointed out to her. In the meantime, you will advise the husband of your knowledge of the affair and of your determination that it must stop.

By all means give the girl at least a chance to make amends. FANNY LOU.

Household Of Ruth-Odd Fellows Annual Session Most Successful In History

Organization Growth Continues Despite Stringency Of Times—Over $3,500 Paid Out Last 12 Months

By HOUSEHOLD REPORTER

MUNCIE, Ind., Aug. 22.—The thirty-third annual convention of the District Grand Household of Ruth No. 9, and Grand United Order of Odd Fellows, which closed here Thursday of last week, was one of the most successful in its history.

A reception rarely equaled and never surpassed in novelty and excellence, was given Monday evening by the citizens of Muncie in honor of the arriving delegates.

Tuesday morning at 8:30 o'clock, the Grand Household assembled under the wise and peerless leadership of Mrs. Georgia E. Porter, of Bloomington district grand most noble governor and spiritual glow of M. E. Washington of New Albany district grand past most noble governor. At the sound of the gavel, the epoch making meeting was under way.

Extends Greetings
Wednesday the proceedings were suspended for a short time to enable participants to attend the Odd Fellows' session, where the greetings of Mrs. Bessie C. Jones, of West Baden, stirred the hearts of the two grand bodies and brought forth thunderous applause.

A grand parade led by Muncie mounted police officers, was staged Wednesday afternoon through the principal street of the city to the beautiful park where everything was in waiting for the marchers.

In the line of march were the Ball Brothers Industrial and Slaters Boys bands, the 5th Regiment of Patriarchs and ladies.

$3,500 Paid Out

In spite of the fact that many members of the order had suffered much as a result of the money panic during the past winter and from deaths in their families, more than $3,500 was paid out in cash during the last twelve months, through the burial fund department under Mrs. M. E. Washington and her superior staff of workers as follows: Miss Myrtle A. Smith, Terre Haute, secretary; Mrs. Erma Herrington, Indianapolis, treasurer, and Mrs. Thelma Rochelle, Evansville, recorder.

Pageant Staged

Among those who helped to put the wonderful program over were: Mesdames Lena Harris, Gary; M. Washington, Indianapolis; Mallie Hill and other prominent Ruthites. Ill health caused our beloved Mauda Harper to resign after sixteen years of service. The citizens of Muncie were lavish in their welcome and hospitality throughout the four days' meeting. A powerful pageant, "Christ in America," was presented, beautifully, to an enthusiastic audience at the close of the session.

Officers Elected
The following officers were elected: Mrs. G. E. Porter, Bloomington, D. G. R. N. G.; Mallie Hill, New Albany, D. G. R.; Mrs. Maud Herring, Crawfordsville, D. G. D.; Lena Harris, Gary, Burial department; president, M. E. Washington, New Albany; secretary, Myrtle Smith, Terre Haute; treasurer, Erma Herrington, Indianapolis; recorder, Thelma Rochelle, Evansville.

Mrs. Carrie Wood rendered beautiful music during the session.

Pastor Wins Contest

THE REV. S. H. MARION

The Rev. Mr. Marion, pastor of the St. Mark temple A. M. E. Zion church, 1803 Shelby street, led in a recently conducted popularity contest with the Rev. F. F. Young, pastor of the First Baptist church, North Indianapolis, by 675 votes.

At the close of the contest Thursday night of last week, $102.50 worth of votes was placed on the table by members and friends of the St. Mark temple church.

The Rev. Mr. Young has been pastoring about twenty-three years while the Rev. Mr. Marion is serving his fifth year in the same capacity. Therefore, the north side has doffed its hats to the Rev. Mr. Marion as the most popular preacher.

CHINE

HAVE YOU WONDERED WHY YOU DON'T GET WELL?

Drugs taken internally or externally do not remedy the nerves which radiate from the vertebrae and govern the functions of bodily organs and muscles.

Chiropractic treatment does. It is a science which succeeds where other methods fail, because it deals with causes instead of effects. It will help you.

YOUNG BANDIT
SLUGS GROCER
GETS 25 CENTS

Intruder Taps Victim Over
The Head With A
Blackjack

GARY, August 22.—A youth is alleged to have turned bandit and slugged a proprietor of a grocery store here over the head with a blackjack Wednesday night of last week and obtained only pennies for his trouble.

The young bandit is said to have entered the store while the proprietor was alone shortly after 11 o'clock, slugged his victim and escaped with the money in a cash register. It amounted to less than 25 cents police said.

The day's receipts had been taken from the register earlier in the evening. The injured man was treated in the St. Antonio hospital.

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Aug. 22.—Hollow Brooks, 28, was arraigned in city court here Friday of last week on charges of assault and battery with intent to kill, preferred by Inez Bruce, 19, who suffered knife wounds in her temple, in a fight at a dance resort.

The Bruce girl was released from Epworth hospital, where it was said her condition was much improved.

Pewee Lipsey, 22 and James Mason, 40, who were taken to St. Joseph hospital with knife wounds inflicted in a fight in the same place about an hour and a half later the same night, were said at the hospital to be improving.

Lipsey suffered slashes about the head and wrist and Mason was stabbed in the wrist.

FACES ROBBERY
CHARGES AFTER LITTLE GAME

GARY, Ind., Aug. 22.—James Lundy, was bound over to the Lake criminal court on bonds of $2,000 by Special Judge Samuel P. Moise in city court, where Lundy faced robbery charges.

Lundy was alleged to have restrained Joe Burch, from leaving a dice game, while several other players menaced Burch with knives and robbed him of $35.

Burch had entered the game, won $20 from a Mrs. Euse Patten and attempted to leave "winner," witnesses said. The other players, however, protested, and when Burch insisted they drew knives and took Burch's money it is alleged.

Lundy's attorney contended that because the transaction involved gambling, it was not possible to commit robbery. His motion for dismissal was overruled by Judge Moise.

NATION TENNIS
TOURNAMENT

THIRD DAY OF MEET

In the third day of the American Tennis Association National meeting the men's singles were resumed and as a result of keener competition, some great matches were witnessed. Probably the most interesting match of the afternoon was the one in which Edgar Brown, defending champion of Chicago defeated Wilkerson of Washington, D. C., by the score of 7-5 and 6-3. Mr. Wilkerson, one of the oldest players participating in the meet, was not conceding a chance against Brown, and his surprisingly great showing kept the stands in an uproar throughout. At one time Wilkerson was leading 6-3 and was point set in the ninth game, but the champion calling on all the resources that he possessed, rallied and finally won this crucial game and although Wilkerson fought gamely until the end the cool, calm, methodical resourcefulness of Brown could not be denied.

Another splendid match was the one between Saitch and Takahashi, and although the Jap gave a splendid account of himself, he could not come with the wonderful volleying and cannon-ball service of the New Yorker. As we go to press all of the fourth round matches had not been completed but all indications pointed to a spirited battle in the quarter finals semi-finals and finals in all divisions.

The crowds so far while possibly not up to expectations have been very representative and are expected to increase with the approach of the final rounds.

Bank Cashier

WASHINGTON, August 22.—C. Wendall Shoemaker, cashier of the Potomac Savings bank, is a firm believer in the power of suggestion. Shoemaker found an armed and masked man bending over the bank janitor in the basement today. The cashier, unarmed, suggested the intruder hand over his guns. The man, Leroy Cooper colored, obligingly gave him his two revolvers.

Oliver Moore Accused Of Attack On Girl, Victim Of Lynchers

TARBORO, N. C., August 22.—Oliver Moore, 35, accused of attacking two white girls, was lynched here early August 19, by 200 men who stormed the Edgecombe county jail.

"I was aroused shortly after midnight and went to the jail," Deputy Sheriff R. O. Watson said. "The mob was milling about the jail. I pleaded with them but they battered down the doors and took the prisoner."

Moore's body was cut down from a tree where officers found it several hours after the lynching. Between 50 and 60 bullet holes marked the body, Watson said.

Arrested Saturday

Moore was arrested Saturday and accused of attacking Ethel Morgan, 7, and her sister, Lucelle, 5, as they played in the loft of their father's tobacco barn, it is alleged.

Moore had been hiding at the home of a brother since the attack more than a month ago, Watson said. Sheriff W. P. Bardin and Solicitor Don Gilliam, who had been investigating the attack, today turned their attention to an investigation of the lynching.

It was the first lynching in North Carolina since 1921.

BAPTISTS OPEN
GREAT SESSION
IN WINDY CITY

Despite "The Mighty
Rumblin'"

CHICAGO, August 22.—(ANP)—After several months of "rumblin'" in the field from the generals of discontent, the Christian soldiers of the great army of incorporated Baptists, drew up in this city Thursday and Friday to begin the celebration of the Golden Jubilee of their organization as an active religious body.

It was in singing and not wrangling that they began their jubilee in the coliseum. Instead of the voices of some mighty pulpit, thundering against sin and the devil, against the enemies within and without, the practical opening services were entrusted to the hands of another sort of leader, General George Garner, an intrepid master of song.

With a chorus of 1,000 trained voices Mr. Garner, a tenor known internationally, turned the minds of the 12,000 persons who filled the hall from factional church quarrels to the Baptist glory songs. Instead of strife, he produced shouting. Even the members of his chorus got happy.

Although this huge and happy chorus followed six pianos easily into the intricacies of the heavy works of Tschalkowsky, Cowen, Beethoven, Rubenstein, and Brahms, Mr. Garner indicated that these orthodox pieces were offered more as proof that the Golden Jubilee chorus is a first-class singing aggregation, than as any sort of fat to the fire of the soul of the music-loving Baptists.

"We shall sing everything," he explained at the opening program. "We are going to give you grand opera, and first-rate choral studies. Then we shall have our own spirituals. Don't walk around too much. We just want to have a sort of half-way camp meeting atmosphere."

Armour Glee Club Feature
The audience bore tolerantly with the classics. But the spirituals brought the first heat. The first of them came from the experienced throats of the Armour Glee club, singing as a part of the chorus. These were formal, rich arrangements. But within a half hour the huge chorus had worked around to the sure enough shouts.

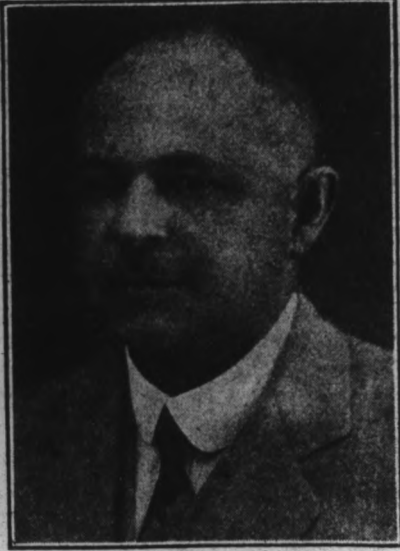

Mr. Garner then stepped away from the microphone and turned the job of leading the chorus to a real shout leader. This man had not only voice and musical knowledge but he had what is called the "gravy." He put spirit into the songs. He was not half through his first song before the dressed and starched up chorus began to crumple. It lost form, transformed by the power of its own singing, into sisters who "had done got happy."

Five thousand persons crowded toward Garner when the concert was over to declare that they had heard "nothing like it in forty years."

Segregationists Try To Oust
Physician-Dentist By Importing Competition

NEW YORK, August 22.—The National office of the N. A. A. C. P. has been informed that although there has been an apparent lull in the White Plains situation arising out of the purchase of homes by Doctors Errol D. Collymore and Arthur M. Williams, there have, nevertheless, been evidences of attempts at insidious methods to dislodge them from their homes. It is alleged that these attempts are being inspired by real estate influences. It has been learned on good authority that recently, attempts have been made by certain white persons to induce a Negro physician and dentist to come to White Plains to oppose these two struggling young men. It is stated that some limited financial help would even be extended, and that the white people would force the Negroes to go to these imported men.

Doctors Praised
Careful inquiry discloses that the Negroes in White Plains and vicinity are in no mood to give welcome or patronage to any newcomer under these conditions. They assert that since Doctors Collymore and Williams have been in their community they have done all they could to promote the welfare of the colored people. They hold these men in very high esteem because of the devotion with which these men have served them. They feel also that these men are making personal sacrifices that are of great importance, not only to them, but to Negroes all over the country, and that any Negro practitioner coming to their community under such instigations is siding with enemies of racial progress.

WALTER WHITE,

GOES TO MARION

Acting Secretary Of National Association Is On
Lynching Probe

NEW YORK, August 22.—Walter White, acting secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, is now in Marion, Indiana, investigating and taking action on behalf of the association in the matter of the lynching of Thomas Shipp and Abraham Smith on August 7, at Marion, Ind.

Through the Indiana State conference of branches of the N. A. A. C. P., and the National office, vigorous action is being taken to bring about if possible, the apprehension and punishment of the lynchers who broke into the jail, apparently with little difficulty and with a minimum of resistance on the part of the sheriff and the other officers, seized the two youths charged with murder and rape, and hanged them. Mr. White is looking into a number of reports indicating that some of the facts as given in the newspapers are at variance with the truth. A summary of his findings and a report of action taken will be made by the N. A. A. C. P. upon Mr. White's return to New York City.

ADVOCATE FUND TO AID CHURCH
IN VIRGINIA

BLACKBURG, Va., August 22.—(CNS)—C. Horace Hamilton, assistant rural sociologist at the agricultural experiment station at Virginia Polytechnic institute, and John M. Ellison, professor of sociology in the Virginia State college for Negroes, advocate an equalization fund for the rural Negro church in Virginia, to be raised by an interdenominational agency and expended in a manner similar to that in State aid for rural schools.

Such a fund, it is suggested should be expended in a few definite projects, such as the employment of rural church specialists, holding of leadership and pastors' training schools, subsidizing the building of new consolidated churches and the establishment of demonstration rural parishes.
